

Product of the Month: Grandpa Book

A delightful little story, written by former MAFCA President Jack V. Crawford, that you can share with your little ones before bedtime, or any time you want to have a special moment with them. Follow the story of Henry Ford, where he grew up and when he started building our cars.

The book talks about the different body styles of the Model A that were made, and other special, fun things, from the ah-OO-ga horn to the rumble seat. There are 13 adorable pages of text and illustrations that you will enjoy every time you read it with MAFCA's next generation!
