Yes, I'm interested... Do you have a few more pictures to send me? I would really like to see a few more pictures before I commit, and ebay works for me.

Subject: RE: 31 Model a Vicky

The car is still available. It is a 1931 Ford Model A Victoria Leatherback! The general condition of the car is excellent, very well maintained, no damages, no mechanical problems and no electrical issues. It has a clear title. This beauty has only 10,003 miles on it and the final and last price is $5,375. Do my divorce settlement, I own this car and as a woman without driver's license I don't need it so I'm trying to get rid of it as soon as possible. Now I work as a casino dealer on a cruise ship. All documents, clear title and a bill of sale on your name will be provided along with the car. Also about payment and shipping I will use only eBay vehicle purchase protection so we can both be protected. I look forward to hear from you. Please tell me what other information would you be interested in and I will try and provide it to you.

As I told you in my first email, I divorced, now I work like casino dealer. I can't call you due the casino policy. The dealers have prohibited to use phone. The car is already at the shipping company in UT created and ready for shipping. The car will arrive at your address in 3-5 working days. The shipping cost is included in the total price of the car! You will have 5 days to test it and inspect the car prior to make any purchase. So if you want to make this deal I need the following details from you: full name and shipping address, phone #.

After I will have all this details I will forward them to eBay and I will proceed this transaction. eBay will contact you with all the details that you need to complete this deal and also to see that I am covered by them and that I am legit seller. Waiting your email with the requested details.
